Kingdom of Heaven

Mat 10:28-31 And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father. But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.

Scripture is saying ye are of more value than many sparrows. Therefore, who is to fear that which is able to destroy both soul and body if it is not God? HINT: Satan is not the answer.

Luke 17:21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you.

Kingdom in the Greek Text;

G932 βασιλεία From G935; properly royalty, that is, (abstractly) rule, or (concretely) a realm (literally or figuratively). G935 βασιλεύς Probably from G939 (through the notion of a foundation of power); a sovereign (abstractly, relatively or figuratively).

Heaven in the Greek Text;

G3772 ουρανός Perhaps from the same as G3735 (through the idea of elevation); the sky; by extension heaven (as the abode of God); by implication happiness, power, eternity; specifically the Gospel (Christianity).

Luke 19:15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

If a soul has received the kingdom, is the soul not "in heaven" in relationship to the souls degree of evil verses love-faith?

The nobleman in Luke 19:12, receiving the kingdom, the kingdom being God, (royalty), ruling the "realm", (heaven). Heaven specifically is the Gospel. The Gospel, or Word being God Himself. So where is heaven?
